INVESTMENT INVOLVES RISKS. The value of the Fund can be volatile and investors may not get back the full amount invested.

- Robeco Credit Income ("the Fund") invests primarily in bonds and debt securities issued by public- or private-sector entities.
- The Fund may invest in financial derivative instruments and is subject to high leverage risk and risks of implementing active financial derivative instrument and currency positions not correlated with the underlying assets. The Fund may have a net leveraged exposure of more than 100% of its net asset value. This will further magnify any potential negative impact of any change in the value of the underlying asset on the Fund. Other risks associated with derivatives include substantial counterparty, liquidity and hedging risks, as well as higher volatility or even a total loss of the Fund's assets within a short period of time.
- The Fund invests in debt securities and is therefore subject to credit risk, interest rate risk, risk of investment in non-investment grade or unrated securities and valuation risk. The Fund also invests in debt instruments with loss-absorption features, which are highly complex and are of higher risk, potentially resulting in a significant or total reduction in value.
- The Fund is also subject to currency risk, liquidity risk and counterparty risk.
- The Fund may engage in securities lending transactions which may involve the risk that the recipient may fail to return the lent securities on the agreed date or furnish the requested additional collateral if required. This could result in losses and negatively impact the Fund's net asset value.
- The Fund may, at its discretion, pay dividends out of capital. Distributions out of capital may result in an immediate reduction of the net asset value per share of the relevant class. Payment of dividends out of capital amounts to a return or withdrawal of part of an investor's original investment or from any capital gains attributable to that original investment.
- Investor should not invest in the Fund solely based on the information provided in this document and should read the offering documents for details (including the risk factors).
