Market development

In April, financial markets were relatively quiet and credit spreads traded in a narrow range, as broad measures of volatility including VIX and MOVE trended lower. Problems in the US regional banking sector continued to pop up. First Republic Bank, which is mainly active in the market for wealthy clients, was the latest victim. The bank faces similar issues as other regional banks, with large unrealized losses on "assets held to maturity". In March, a group of US banks provided USD 30 bln of uninsured deposits to shore up liquidity. This did not turn the tide for First Republic and the bank was ultimately acquired by JPMorgan in a transaction organized by the US government. Most company earnings exceeded expectations, as the latter had been guided down to relatively low levels. Inflation remains above target levels in both Europe and the US, while tighter bank lending standards led to questions about the number of rate hikes to come. In the real estate sector there continue to be defaults in office property loans due to rising vacancy rates, higher interest rates and tighter lending standards. Primary markets were relatively subdued due to the earnings calendar, despite lower rate and spread volatility.

Expectation of fund manager

Central banks have been experimenting with monetary policy for years – and have invented a lot of new monetary instruments and strategies along the way. The result has been low or negative yields for way too long. The economic system created debt in all corners of society. A fast and aggressive hiking cycle will for sure reveal many problems. All time-series show a recession could start somewhere toward the end of the year – and we believe central banks will cause one. Recent developments in the banking sector will lead to more tightening lending standards, which will put additional pressure on the economy. We do believe risks are more skewed to the US market this time. Our concern is with leveraged sectors that might be rate sensitive like covenant-lite leveraged loans, real estate, and CLOs. We are far enough into the business and rate cycle that when markets become too bearish, buying on the dip makes sense. This time, the sell-off in AT-1 and subordinated financials led to excessive risk premiums and a buying opportunity in that segment. Valuations for non-financials are less attractive and valuations for cyclicals are not fully reflecting recession risks at the moment.

Sustainability

The fund incorporates sustainability in the investment process via exclusions, ESG integration, a minimum allocation to ESG-labeled bonds, and engagement. The fund does not invest in credit issuers that are in breach of international norms or where activities have been deemed detrimental to society following Robeco's exclusion policy. Financially material ESG factors are integrated in the bottom-up security analysis to assess the impact on the issuer's fundamental credit quality. In the credit selection the fund limits exposure to issuers with an elevated sustainability risk profile. Furthermore, the fund invests at least 5% in green, social, sustainable, and/or sustainability-linked bonds. Lastly, where issuers are flagged for breaching international standards in the ongoing monitoring, the issuer will become subject to engagement.

Sector allocation

The sector allocation is to a large extent driven by bottom-up issuer selection. The fund is overweight in European financials, both banking and insurance. To us, the problems at US regional banks like SVB are issuer-specific, but markets started to worry about banks that were facing deposit outflows in particular. Banks' capitalizations are significantly better now than a decade ago and large banks benefit from ample liquidity. The fund is underweight REITs, as higher (re-)financing costs, higher vacancies at CREs and revaluations are putting pressure on their business models. Our overweight in basic industry is in companies with favorable supply-demand dynamics and beneficial positions on their cost curves. Our overweight in consumer cyclical is driven by a combination of Carnival Corp, ZF Friedrichshafen AG and Volkswagen AG bonds. Apart from that, we hold overweight positions in several utility-like agencies.

Sector allocation		Deviation index

Industrials	33.5%	-18.6%

Currency denomination allocation

Our currency positioning over different foreign currencies is the result of our beta positioning, sector themes, and issuer selection. The remainder is held in cash. All currency exposure is hedged back to the Bloomberg Aggregate Corporate Index. Euro cash bonds outperformed dollar bonds in terms of risk-adjusted excess returns for the month. The funds hold an overweight position in Euro bonds.

Currency denomination allocation		Deviation index
U.S. Dollar	51.1%	-16.6%
Euro	37.1%	13.7%
Pound Sterling	5.6%	1.6%

Euro	1.1	0.0
Pound Sterling	0.3	0.0
Canadian Dollar	0.2	0.0

Rating allocation

We have a preference for specific rating buckets throughout the credit cycle. Our positioning over the different buckets is therefore the result of beta positioning, sector themes and issuer selection. Positions vary from emerging credits, high-yield rated countries, subordinated bonds and rising stars. Measured in DTS terms, currently, the fund is underweight investment grade credits and overweight BB credits. Within investment grade rating buckets, we have a neutral position in AA and AAA-rated credits combined.

Rating allocation		Deviation index
AAA	9.6%	8.7%
AA	5.7%	-1.9%
A	24.9%	-17.9%
BAA	42.7%	-6.0%
BA	9.9%	9.9%
B	1.0%	1.0%
NR	0.1%	0.1%
Cash and other instruments	6.1%	6.1%

Subordination allocation

In the allocation to the capital structure, we favor the bonds with the most risk-adjusted performance potential, while taking into account the beta, sector themes, and the credit cycle. The exposure that we do have to subordinated bonds is limited to only positions that have both a good fundamental outlook and a good bond structure.

Subordination type allocation		Deviation index

Investment policy

Robeco Global Credits is an actively managed fund that invests primarily in a diversified portfolio of global investment grade corporate bonds. The selection of these bonds is based on fundamental analysis. The fund's objective is to provide long-term capital growth. The fund promotes E&S (i.e. Environmental and Social) characteristics within the meaning of Article 8 of the European Sustainable Finance Disclosure Regulation, integrates sustainability risks in the investment process and applies Robeco's Good Governance policy. The fund applies sustainability indicators, including but not limited to, normative, activity-based and region-based exclusions, and engagement. This fund has the flexibility to invest in other fixed income asset classes such as high yield, emerging credits and asset-backed securities. The fund can take limited active duration (interest-rate sensitivity) positions. The majority of bonds selected will be components of the benchmark, but bonds outside the benchmark may be selected too. The fund can deviate substantially from the weightings of the benchmark. The fund aims to outperform the benchmark over the long run, while still controlling relative risk through the application of limits (on currencies) to the extent of the deviation from the benchmark. This will consequently limit the deviation of the performance relative to the benchmark. The Benchmark is a broad market-weighted index that is not consistent with the ESG characteristics promoted by the fund.
