This document provides you with key investor information about this fund. It is not marketing material. The information is required by law to help you understand the nature and the risks of investing in this fund. You are advised to read it so you can make an informed decision about whether to invest.

Robeco Emerging Markets Bonds Local Currency SH GBP (LU3306722003)

This fund is a subfund of Robeco Capital Growth Funds, SICAV.

Management Company: Robeco Institutional Asset Management B.V.

Objectives and investment policy

Robeco Emerging Market Bonds Local Currency is an actively managed fund investing at least two-thirds in government bonds, asset backed securities and other fixed income securities of emerging countries mainly denominated in Local currencies (local currency refers to currency of the relevant country in which the fund invests). The selection of these assets is based on fundamental analysis. The fund aims to achieve a better return than the benchmark.

The fund promotes E&S (i.e. Environmental and Social) characteristics within the meaning of Article 8 of the European Sustainable Finance Disclosure Regulation integrates sustainability risks in the investment process and applies Robeco's Good Governance policy. The fund applies sustainability indicators, including but not limited to, normative, activity-based and region-based exclusions.

Active currency positions are part of the fund's investment strategy. This share class hedges currency risk between the base currency of the fund (USD) to the currency in which this share class is denominated. Consequently, active currency positions in the fund will influence the performance of the share class.

Benchmark: J.P. Morgan GBI-EM Global Diversified (Total Return, hedged into GBP)

The Sub-fund is actively managed and uses the Benchmark for asset allocation purposes. However, although bonds may be components of the Benchmark, bonds outside the Benchmark may be selected too. The Subfund can deviate substantially from the weightings of the Benchmark. No minimum for bonds that are components of the Benchmark shall apply. The Management Company has discretion over the composition of the portfolio subject to the investment objectives. The Sub-fund aims to outperform the Benchmark over the long run, whilst still controlling relative risk through the applications of limits (on currencies and issuers) to the extent of deviation from the Benchmark. This will consequently limit the deviation of the performance relative to the Benchmark.

This share class of the fund does not distribute dividend.

You can purchase or sell units in the fund on any valuation day. This fund may not be appropriate for investors who plan to withdraw their money within 3 years.

Risk and reward profile

Historical data, such as is used in calculating the synthetic indicator, is not a reliable indication of the future risk profile. The risk and reward category shown is not guaranteed to remain unchanged, the categorization may shift over time. The lowest category does not mean a risk-free investment.

This fund invests primarily in government bonds. Investments in emerging and frontier markets are considered to be prone to larger price movements and increased volatility compared to the investments in developed markets. The fund may use derivatives to attain its investment objectives. These instruments may present a leverage effect, which will increase the sensitivity of the fund to market fluctuations.

The following risk considerations are deemed material for this fund, and are not (adequately) reflected by the indicator:

- A derivative counterparty may fail to fulfil its obligations which could result in a loss. Counterparty risk is reduced via the exchange of collateral.

- The fund invests in assets that could become less liquid in certain market conditions, which could have a significant impact on the value of these assets. Investors may face significant difficulties in terms of time or costs for disinvesting subject to specific market conditions.
- This fund primarily invests in government bonds, including those from emerging and frontier markets. These markets are characterized by high sovereign risk due to their less stable political and economic environments. Consequently, investments in these regions are more susceptible to significant price fluctuations and increased volatility compared to developed markets.
- The fund invests or may invest in (contingent) convertible bonds. Upon materialization of a pre-defined trigger, these instruments can convert into equity or face full or partial write down.
- For more details about portfolio risks, see Section 4. "Risk Considerations" of the prospectus.
