Liquidity of ordinary shares

The Fund is an open-end investment company, meaning that, barring exceptional circumstances, it issues and repurchases ordinary shares on a daily basis at prices approximating net asset value, augmented or reduced by a limited surcharge or discount. The only purpose of this surcharge or discount is to cover the costs incurred by the Fund for the entry and exit of investors. The actual maximum surcharge or discount is published on www.robeco.com/riam. The surcharges and discounts are recognized in the profit and loss account.

The different fee percentages of both share-classes can be found in note 10 to the financial statements.

All bearer shares which have not been converted in time were, on the basis of the Act, acquired by the Fund for no consideration per 1 January 2021. From 1 January 2021 through 31 December 2025, holders of K certificates in the Fund may exchange their K-certificate for a replacement registered share. To this end, shareholders should submit their bearer shares to the Fund agent (ING Bank) through the financial institution where they have a securities account. After 31 December 2025, all K-certificates will be null and void.

General introduction

Financial markets environment

In the first half of 2025 the global economy continued to navigate through a complex landscape characterized by a continued disinflation, geopolitical turmoil and significant economic policy changes. The NATO summit in The Hague in June 2025 was widely seen as a turning point for European defense, with leaders stepping up efforts to re-arm the continent in recognition that the peace dividend has vanished. A key element was the agreement to increase NATO member defense expenditures to 5% of GDP by 2035. Of this 3.5% is earmarked for core defense (military equipment, personnel). The other 1.5% is related to resilience investments (cyber security, infrastructure, energy security). Earlier in March 2025 the EU launched ReARm Europe, a strategic initiative under the Readiness 2030 framework to strengthen European defense capabilities in response to geopolitical threats and reduce reliance on US military support. The total funding of the pool is confirmed at EUR 800bn of which a EUR 150bn loan pool for defense procurement. Currently 80% of EU defense procurement is imported. The loan pool facilitates a shift in demand to European defense industries. Apart from that, the US administration initiated a wave of both universal, sectoral, as well as reciprocal tariff announcements. Despite these challenges, global real GDP grew by an estimated 2.9%, down from 3.3% in 2024. The resilience of the global economy can be attributed to robust consumer spending, particularly in the US, frontloading of inventories in the face of tariffs and a continued easing cycle by central banks.

The US economy remained a standout performer, with real GDP growth projected at 2.6% in Q2 2025. Consumer spending was buoyed by a resilient labor market and overall positive real wage growth, though wage growth of lower income cohorts is decelerating with jobless claims picking up from low levels. The eurozone showed signs of recovery, with real GDP growth of 1.2%. Germany, in particular, recovered from recession with a positive 0.5% growth.

Inflation remained a key concern for policymakers, especially as US tariffs raised retail prices. While headline inflation showed signs of easing, core inflation remained elevated, though lower negotiated wages signaled further cooling of services inflation. The Federal Reserve (Fed) held the policy rate steady in H1 2025 in the 4.25%- 4.5% range, while the European Central Bank (ECB) cut the policy interest rates by 100 basis points to 2.00%.

China's economy showed signs of stabilization, with real GDP growth of 5.4% in Q1 2025. Strong net export figures helped offset persisting weakness in the property sector and subdued consumption.

2 April 2025 marked 'Liberation Day', the announcement of reciprocal tariffs by the US administration which created significant market turmoil. Additionally, the tariff war under president Trump continued to impact global trade dynamics. The dollar declined during the April sell-off, adding to market volatility as it put the spotlight on the staying power of US exceptionalism.

Outlook for the equity markets

Equity markets experienced mixed performance in H1 2025. The MSCI World index declined by 3.4% in euro terms even as the US equity market generated a positive 6.2% in dollar terms. This positive return belies a steep market sell-off of nearly 20% in the week following the US administration's announcement of reciprocal tariffs on 2 April 2025. A strong depreciation in the first half of 2025 of the US dollar versus the euro of 13.7% dented US equity returns for euro investors. European equity markets rallied strongly in the first half of 2025 on the prospect of higher fiscal spending and an improvement in incoming macro-economic data. The German equity market rose by 24.3% in euro terms.

US technology companies continued to lead the market, with strong earnings growth and renewed optimism about artificial intelligence (AI) driving valuations higher. However, there are also rising concerns about potential regulatory actions and competition from Chinese tech firms.

While higher US tariffs so far have not shown to negatively impact earnings or raise inflation, the second half of 2025 could see US corporates try to pass on higher input costs by raising selling prices or take a partial hit on their profit margins. In addition, a renewed inflationary impulse would likely leave interest rates largely unchanged by the US central bank towards 2026, leaving an incomplete rate cutting cycle. Both elements contribute to downside risk against the backdrop of already elevated valuation levels in the US equity market.

Investment policy

Introduction

At the start of 2025, Rolinco N.V. modified its investment policy and expanded its investment universe to include companies from all of Robeco's thematic equity strategies, consolidating resources and leveraging the extensive investment expertise across Robeco's thematic investment teams. While the investment philosophy and objective remained unchanged, the process now incorporates a network of internal ambassadors for each theme. This enhances the portfolio management team's ability to gather and evaluate diverse ideas and insights, aiding in bottom-up stock selection and risk diversification across themes. Rolinco N.V.'s investment philosophy now focuses on stocks that benefit from three secular growth trends: 'Changing Sociodemographics', 'Preserving Earth' and 'Transforming Technologies'.

Investment objective

The Fund aims to offer a well-diversified global equity portfolio focusing on growth stocks while at the same time promoting certain ESG (i.e. Environmental, Social and Governance) characteristics and integrating sustainability risks in the investment process. The Fund strives to outperform its reference index, the MSCI All Country World Index.

Rolinco N.V. is classified as Article 8 under the SFDR. More information is available in the precontractual SFDR disclosures of the Fund on the Robeco website.

Implementation of the investment policy

During the first half of 2025 the portfolio managers continued to increase diversification of the portfolio in light of the ongoing, and even heightened, uncertainty on the macro-economic and geopolitical situation in the world. Combined with the modification of the investment policy and the bigger universe to select stocks from, the number of positions has been increased by another 6 to 70 in total. The turnover ratio (double-counted) however came down to 17% for the six months, compared to 58% for the full year 2024.

The weight of 'Changing Sociodemographics' fell marginally from 31.5% to 31%. The portfolio managers added five new positions, primarily smaller ones, to the portfolio and removed Illumina due to its weakened fundamental investment case. The five new additions are:

- Cie Fin Richemont a jewelry manufacturer that can benefit if global luxury demand comes back.
- Danone a leader in dairy and plant-based products, that should benefit from increased consumer appetite for 'healthy food' and adds some defensiveness to the portfolio.
- Alibaba Chinese e-commerce leader that is expected to benefit from AI-driven momentum in its Cloud business and government stimulus supporting e-commerce.

Implementation of the investment policy (continued)

- Daiichi Sankyo a Japanese pharmaceutical enterprise that is successfully rolling out its proprietary ADC technology for applications in targeted oncology therapies (breast cancer first, lung cancer next).
- Spotify music-streaming giant Spotify is benefiting from strong subscriber growth and adds some media exposure to the portfolio.

These additions were financed by reducing positions in Essilor Luxottica, Compass Group, Alcon and Siemens Healthineers. The position in HDFC Bank was slightly increased as the situation in the banking sector in India is improving.

Despite its strong performance and the addition of three – albeit small – new positions, the weight of 'Preserving Earth' stabilized round 23.5%. The main reason for this was partial profit taking on several positions in this trend. New positions included:

- Weir Group the largest provider of slurry pumps and ground-engaging tools to primarily mining companies, with a focus on the more defensive aftermarket part of the value chain.
- Nextracker market leader in the global solar tracker market, focused on utility-based solar projects.
- Waste Management the largest player in the North American solid waste sector which is consistently pricing ahead of internal cost inflation, driving constant margin improvement.

Partial profit was taken on the position in EV maker BYD and the proceeds were added to battery maker CATL, also from China. In order to fund the new additions, positions were also reduced in Prysmian, Quanta Services, Tesla, Sprouts Farmers Market, Ashtead, TopBuild, Veolia and Xylem.

The weight of 'Transforming Technologies' has declined slightly over the period from 46% to 45%. The declining weight was primarily driven by weak performance and secondarily by the net selling of existing holdings in the Transforming Technologies trend. New additions:

- Accenture a leading IT services firm that provides consulting, system integration, and business process outsourcing to enterprises around the world. Accenture should fare better than other IT services companies as enterprises introduce artificial intelligence agents into their workforces.
- Coinbase the leading cryptocurrency exchange platform in the United States. A new position was bought in Coinbase for its direct exposure to the digital assets theme and the crypto ecosystem in particular, an under-owned but potentially transformative space.

The position in Intuitive Surgical was slightly lowered after continued outperformance of the shares. The weight of Keyence was lowered as there are few short term catalysts to get the share moving again. The position in Cappemini was switched into Accenture, which displays better topline momentum, achieves higher returns on invested capital and has a lower beta. Furthermore, positions were sold in Intuit, on concerns over US policy headlines, and in Informa on reconsideration of the thematic fit of the company.

Currency policy

Rolinco N.V. pursues an active currency policy with the euro as its base currency. The currency risk arises from the selection of specific stocks and the currencies in which they are denominated. Stock selection in the portfolio is mainly based on the chosen trends and not on the underlying country or currency. The various currency risks may be hedged, but this option was not implemented during the period under review. Further quantitative information on the currency risk can be found in the information on currency risk provided on page 14.

Derivatives positions

The Fund may use derivatives for efficient portfolio management, for hedging currency and market risks and for investment objectives. The Fund did not use any derivatives during the reporting period.

Over the reporting period, Rolinco N.V. generated a return of -4.9% (gross of fees in EUR), against a return of -2.9% for its reference index, the MSCI All Country Index (net return in EUR).

The first six months of the year were very volatile, driven by aggressive US tariff policies, sparking trade war fears and sharp global stock market declines. While markets recovered most of their losses after US president Trump announced a 90-day pause on tariffs to allow for negotiating trade deals, policy uncertainty under the new US administration continued to feed volatility, with 33% of trading days showing swings of 1% or more. Geopolitical tensions, including conflicts in the Middle East and Ukraine, added to market pressures. US markets considerably underperformed the rest of the world as US-dominated technology stocks suffered more than other industries and the US dollar declined significantly against most other currencies.

The performance of the Fund benefited from overweighted positions in Europe and Emerging Markets, but suffered from overweight's in the underperforming Information and Medical Technology sectors. In the end, sectoral underperformances trumped geographical outperformances. Over the six-month period, the Fund's top-down allocation yielded a negative result, while its bottom-up stock selection was slightly positive.

The best performing trend over the first six months of the year was 'Preserving Earth' (-0.3%). Companies with exposure to tariffs or US government projects generally fared poorly, but companies with idiosyncratic exposure to pockets of strength and / or of a more defensive nature such as utility services, offered some counterweight. On balance, stock selection contributed positively. Top contributors to performance were Quanta Services (+6%), Veolia Environment (+15%), and BYD (+21%). Tesla (-31%), CATL (-12%) and Tetra Tech (-20%)were the main detractors to performance.

'Changing Socio-demographics' (-5.3%) suffered from strong headwinds for Medical Technology and Luxury holdings. Cutbacks in research funding as part of the Trump administration's DOGE efficiency drive hit Medical Technology companies with exposure there. Next to that, the appointment of anti-vaccine activist Robert F. Kennedy jr. as Secretary of Health and Human Services, along with the nomination of controversial Dr. Oz as Administrator of the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services stirred up considerable uncertainty regarding future healthcare policies. Luxury goods producers performed poorly in the first half of 2025, as demand in China, which accounts for approximately 30% of global luxury spending, remained weak due to low consumer confidence and persistent geopolitical and economic uncertainties. Strong performances from the Fund's e-commerce and FinTech holdings in emerging markets provided some antidote. The stock selection result was marginally positive. Top performers were MercadoLibre (+36%), Nu Holdings Environment (+17%), and Sea (+33%). The other side of the ledger featured Medical Technology names Thermo Fisher Scientific (-31%), IQVIA (-29%) and Novo Nordisk (-29%).

'Transforming Technologies', the Fund's biggest trend, generated the worst return over the reporting period with a drop of 6.8%. This was mainly driven by a steep selloff in AI-exposed technology companies - this bull market's shiny stars - sparked by the launch of a low-cost AI model by Chinese AI startup DeepSeek. This rocked investors' confidence in the economic justification of spending huge amounts on high-cost American AI models, wiped USD 1 trillion from US tech stocks, and saw Nvidia losing USD 593 billion in a single day. Although many of DeepSeek's claims turned out to be dubious, many tech stocks are still in the process of recovering the lost ground. The tariff turmoil and resulting economic uncertainty provided a second blow to many technology companies, especially software vendors, which are dependent on willingness of their clients to invest in new technologies. The stock selection result was negative, mainly due to poor performance of some of software and FinTech names. Coinbase (+77%), Nvidia (+4%), and Microsoft (+4%) were top contributors to return, while Alphabet (-18%), Salesforce (-28%) and Globant (-63%) led the detractors.

Return and risk

The net investment result over the reporting period was achieved with a concentrated portfolio, as measured by active share which has hovered around 80% throughout the reporting period. The realized beta of the Rolinco N.V. portfolio was 1.12, measured over a five-year period, down from 1.17 a year ago. The lowered beta reflects the policy of diversifying the portfolio's exposure further in order to lower the risk profile without sacrificing expected returns. The ratio of the Fund's volatility to the reference index oscillated between 120% and 125%. Over the reporting period, the portfolio remained comfortably within its prescribed risk limits.

² Based on the average amount of shares outstanding during the reporting year. The average number of shares is calculated on a daily basis.

To analyze ESG factors, Robeco has research available from leading sustainability experts, including Robeco's own proprietary research from the Sustainable Investing research team. This dedicated team works closely together with Robeco's investment teams to provide in-depth sustainability information to the investment process. Investment analysis focuses on the most financially material ESG factors and how these factors may drive the financial performance of a company. The objective of structurally integrating financially material issues is to reach better informed investment decisions.

Actions taken to meet the environmental and/or social characteristics

Sustainability factors are integrated in the investment process as part of the bottom-up approach of ESG integration in the portfolio. Furthermore, the portfolio managers have applied the Robeco exclusion policy to ensure that no investments were made in excluded securities. In terms of active engagement, the portfolio managers continue to work together closely with the active ownership team. During H1 2025, votes have been cast on behalf of Rolinco N.V.at the AGMs of the holdings in portfolio and Robeco has an ongoing engagement with several portfolio holdings.

The ESG Risk rating of the portfolio is 10% below the level for the index. Based on the weighted average Sustainalytics scores of the Fund's portfolio holdings per 30 June 2025, the Fund has an unchanged ESG Risk rating of 18.8, which is classified as "Low" (scores between 10 and 20). The MSCI All Countries World index has a weighted average risk rating of 20.9 which is classified as "Medium" (scores between 20 and 30). There are no companies in portfolio that are considered to incur an elevated sustainability risk (Severe risk rating) as measured by Sustainalytics.

The addition of Weir Group, which provides mission-critical and resource-efficient solutions to a broad array of mining companies, allowed to diversify the Fund's portfolio's exposure to the underrepresented and lowly correlated mining industry, thus improving the portfolio's risk profile without compromising its ESG profile.

Notes

General

The semi-annual financial statements have been drawn up in conformity with Part 9, Book 2 of the Dutch Civil Code. The Fund's financial year is the same as the calendar year. The notes referring to Fund shares concern ordinary shares outstanding.

The ordinary shares are divided into two series, both of which are open. Each series is designated as a share class. The Fund includes the following share classes:

Share class A: Rolinco - EUR E Share class B: Rolinco - EUR G

Accounting principles

General

The other principles for the valuation of assets, liabilities and determination of the result are unchanged and therefore are in accordance with the presentation in the most recent annual financial statements. Unless stated otherwise, items shown in the semi-annual report are carried at nominal value and expressed in thousands of euros.

Attribution to share classes

The administration of the Fund is such that attribution of the results to the different share classes takes place on a daily basis and pro rata. Issues and repurchases of own shares are registered per share class.

Risks relating to financial instruments

Investment risk

The value of investments may fluctuate. Past performance is no guarantee of future results. The net asset value of the Fund depends on developments in the financial markets and can therefore either rise or fall. Shareholders run the risk that their investments may end up being worth less than the amount invested, or even worth nothing. The general investment risk can also be characterized as market risk.

Market risk

Market risk can be divided into three types: price risk, currency risk and concentration risk. Market risks are contained using limits on quantitative risk measures such as tracking error, volatility or value-at-risk. This means that the underlying risk types (price risk, currency risk and concentration risk) are also indirectly contained.

Price risk

The net asset value of the Fund is sensitive to market movements. In addition, investors should be aware of the possibility that the value of investments may vary as a result of changes in political, economic or market circumstances, as well as changes in an individual business situation. The entire portfolio is exposed to price risk. The degree of price risk that the Fund runs depends among other things on the risk profile of the Fund's portfolio. More detailed information on the risk profile of the Fund's portfolio can be found in the section on Implementation of the investment policy on page 7.

Currency risk

All or part of the securities portfolio of the Fund may be invested in currencies, or financial instruments denominated in currencies other than the euro. As a result, fluctuations in exchange rates may have both a negative and a positive effect on the investment result of the Fund. Currency risks may be hedged with currency forward transactions and currency options. Currency risks can be limited by applying relative or absolute currency concentration limits.

As at the balance sheet date, there were no positions in currency derivatives.

Concentration risk

Based on its investment policy, the Fund may invest in financial instruments from issuing institutions that operate mainly within the same sector or region, or in the same market. If this is the case, the investment portfolio of the sub-fund is overexposed to a single e.g. issuer, sector, geographic region, etcetera that could potentially result in adverse effects to financial results. Concentration risks can be limited by applying relative or absolute country or sector concentration limits.

As at the balance sheet date, there were no positions in the stock market index futures contracts.

Credit risk

Credit risk occurs when a counterparty of the Fund fails to fulfill its financial obligations arising from financial instruments in the Fund. Credit risk is limited as far as possible by exercising an appropriate degree of caution in the selection of counterparties. In selecting counterparties, the assessments of independent rating bureaus are taken into account, as are other relevant indicators. Wherever it is customary in the market, the Fund will demand and obtain collateral in order to mitigate credit risk. The figure that best represents the maximum credit risk is given in the table below.

| | 30/06/2 | 31/12/2024 | | |
|---------------------------|----------|------------|----------|------------|
| | | % of | | % of |
| | EUR' 000 | net assets | EUR' 000 | net assets |
| Accounts receivable | 2,361 | 0.26 | 2,011 | 0.20 |
| Cash and cash equivalents | 25,785 | 2.85 | 19,117 | 1.90 |
| Total | 28,146 | 3.11 | 21,128 | 2.10 |

No account is taken of collateral received in the calculation of the total credit risk. Credit risk is contained by applying limits on the exposure per counterparty as a percentage of the Fund assets. As at the balance sheet date there were no counterparties with an exposure of more than 5% of the Fund's total assets. All counterparties are pre-approved by Robeco. Procedures have been established relating to the selection of counterparties, specified on the basis of external credit ratings and credit spreads.

Risk of lending financial instruments

In the case of securities-lending transactions, collateral is requested and obtained for those financial instruments that are lent. In the case of securities-lending transactions, the Fund incurs a specific type of counterparty risk that the borrower cannot comply with the obligation to return the financial instruments on the agreed date or to furnish the requested collateral. The lending policy of the Fund is designed to control these risks as much as possible. To mitigate specific counterparty risk, the Fund receives collateral prior to lending the financial instruments.

All counterparties used in the securities lending process are pre-approved by Robeco. The approval process takes into account the entities credit rating (if available) and whether the counterparty is subject to prudential regulation. Any relevant incidents involving the entity are also taken into account.

The Fund accepts collateral by selected issuers in the form of:

- bonds issued (or guaranteed) by governments of OECD member states;
- local government bonds with tax raising authority;
- corporate bonds that are FED or ECB eligible collateral;
- bonds of supranational institutions and undertakings with an EU, regional or world-wide scope;
- stocks listed on the main indexes of stock markets as disclosed in the prospectus;
- Cash.

In addition, concentration limits are applied to collateral to restrict concentration risks in the collateral and there are also liquidity criteria for containing the liquidity risks in the collateral. Finally, depending on the type of lending transaction and the type of collateral, collateral with a premium is requested relative to the value of the lending transaction. This limits the negative effects of price risks in the collateral.

The table below gives an overview of the positions lent out as a percentage of the portfolio (total of the instruments lent out) and relative to the Fund's assets.

The following table gives an overview of the positions lent out and the collateral received per counterparty.

All outstanding lending transactions are transactions with an open-ended term. That means that there is no prior agreement as to how long the securities are lent out. Securities may be reclaimed by the Fund if required.

J.P. Morgan has been appointed depositary of all collateral received. The securities are managed by RIAM and are held on separate accounts per counterparty. In line with the provisions in the prospectus, the collateral received has not been reinvested.

Liquidity risk

We distinguish between asset liquidity risk and funding liquidity risk, which are closely connected:

Asset liquidity risk arises when transactions cannot be executed in a timely fashion at quoted market prices and/or at acceptable transaction cost levels due to the size of the trade. Or in more extreme cases, when they cannot be conducted at all. Asset liquidity risk is a function of transaction size, transaction time and transaction cost.

Funding liquidity risk arises when the redemption requirements of clients or other liabilities cannot be met without significantly impacting the value of the portfolio. Funding liquidity risk will only arise if there is also asset liquidity risk. During the reporting period all client redemptions have been met.

Manager

Robeco Institutional Asset Management B.V. ("RIAM") is the Fund manager. In this capacity, RIAM handles the asset management, administration, marketing and distribution of the Fund. RIAM holds an AIFMD license as referred to in Section 2:65 Wft. In addition, RIAM is licensed as a manager of UCITS (2:69b Wft, the Dutch Financial Supervision Act), which includes managing individual assets and giving advice on financial instruments. RIAM is subject to supervision by the Dutch Authority for the Financial Markets (Stichting Autoriteit Financiële Markten, "AFM"). RIAM has listed the Fund with AFM. RIAM is a 100% subsidiary of ORIX Corporation Europe N.V. via Robeco Holding B.V. ORIX Corporation Europe N.V. is a part of ORIX Corporation.

Depositary

The assets of the Fund are held in custody by J.P. Morgan SE, Amsterdam Branch. J.P. Morgan SE, Amsterdam Branch is appointed as the depositary of the Fund as referred to in Section 4:62m Wft. The depositary is responsible for supervising the Fund insofar as required under and in accordance with the applicable legislation. The manager, the Fund and J.P. Morgan SE, Amsterdam Branch have concluded a depositary and custodian agreement.

Liability of the depositary

The depositary is liable to the Fund and/or the Shareholders for the loss of a financial instrument under the custody of the depositary or of a third party to which custody has been transferred. The depositary is not liable if it can demonstrate that the loss is a result of an external event over which it in all reasonableness had no control and of which the consequences were unavoidable, despite all efforts to ameliorate them. The depositary is also liable to the Fund and/or the shareholders for all other losses they suffer because the depositary has not fulfilled its obligations as stated in this depositary and custodian agreement either deliberately or through negligence. Shareholders may make an indirect claim upon the liability of the depositary through the manager. If the manager refuses to entertain such a request, the shareholders are authorized to submit the claim for losses directly to the depositary.

Affiliated parties

The Fund and the manager may utilize the services of and carry out transactions with parties affiliated to the Fund, as defined in the BGfo, such as RIAM, Robeco Nederland B.V. and ORIX Corporation. The services entail the execution of tasks that have been outsourced to these parties such as (1) securities lending, (2) hiring temporary staff and (3) issuance and repurchase of the Fund's shares. Transactions that can be carried out with affiliated parties include the following: treasury management, derivatives transactions, lending of financial instruments, credit extension, purchase and sale of financial instruments on regulated markets or through multilateral trading facilities. All these services and transactions are executed at market rates.

Notes to the balance sheet

1. Equities

A breakdown of this portfolio is given under Schedule of Investments. All investments are admitted to a regulated market and have quoted market prices. A sub-division into regions and sectors is provided under the information on concentration risk under the information on Risks relating to financial instruments.

Transaction costs

Brokerage costs and exchange fees relating to investment transactions are discounted in the cost price or the sales value of the investment transactions. These costs and fees are charged to the result ensuing from changes in value. The quantifiable transaction costs are shown below

| | 01/01/2025- | 01/01/2024- |

RIAM wants to be certain that the selection of counterparties for equity transactions (brokers) occurs using procedures and criteria that ensure the best results for the Fund (best execution).

No costs for research from external parties were charged to the Fund during the reporting period.

2. Other receivables, prepayments and accrued income

This concerns receivables from dividends declared and not yet received, recoverable tax deducted at source, receivables from issuance of own shares, receivables from affiliated companies and suspense items.

3. Cash and cash equivalents

This concerns directly callable credit balances at banks and any money on call.

4. Other liabilities, accruals and deferred income

This concerns liabilities from dividends made payable, payable from securities transactions, liabilities from repurchases of own shares and management and service fees due.

5. 6.5% cumulative preference shares

At balance-sheet date, 116,555 cumulative preference shares were outstanding. The shares have been included in the balance sheet at their original nominal value of NLG 100, which is equal to EUR 45.38. The nominal value of the shares was originally NLG 100 per share. With the introduction of the euro, these shares were re-denominated to EUR 40 each. These shares give the holder the right to a cumulative preference dividend of EUR 2.95 annually, but do not form part of the Fund assets. The shares are listed on Euronext Amsterdam, Euronext Fund Service segment. Since the amendment to the Articles of Association on 14 August 2012, these shares are being redeemed by the Fund.

The intrinsic value of a cumulative preference share is determined on the basis of the paid-up amount of EUR 45.38, with the addition of accrued but not yet payable dividends. In order to correctly present the assets due to ordinary shareholders, this dividend has been included in the value of the cumulative preference shares and deducted from the general reserve. The modifications are shown in the table below.
