Jeroen Kremers steps down from the Supervisory Board of Robeco

Rotterdam, 6 April 2020— Robeco announces that Jeroen Kremers has stepped down as Chair of the Supervisory Board of Robeco effective 30 March 2020, having served Robeco for six years.

Jeroen Kremers joined Robeco's Supervisory Board as a member in 2014, and was appointed chair in 2016. The search for a successor has started. In the interim, Sonja Barendregt-Roojers, Vice-chair of the Supervisory Board, will take over Mr. Kremers' responsibilities.

Sonja Barendregt-Roojers: "On behalf of the Supervisory Board, I would like to thank Jeroen for his important contribution to Robeco and the commitment he has shown to the company. His wealth of experience has been invaluable. We wish him every success in the future."
